Corporate Pet Relocation That Protects the Employee Experience

When employees relocate internationally or across the country, their pets are not an afterthought — they are family.

For many relocating employees, concern about their pet's journey is one of the most emotional and stressful parts of the move. Delays, documentation requirements, airline restrictions, quarantine regulations, and customs procedures can quickly overwhelm families already navigating a major life transition.

WorldCare Pet Transport helps corporate relocation teams simplify that process through safe, compliant, fully managed pet relocation services designed to support both operational success and employee peace of mind.

For more than 25 years, WorldCare Pet Transport has helped families relocate their beloved pets safely throughout the USA, Canada, and around the world. Our team combines global logistics expertise with compassionate customer care to deliver exceptional relocation experiences for employees and their families.

Today, WorldCare is proud to support corporate mobility teams, HR departments, relocation management companies, and global organizations that want to provide relocating employees with a trusted pet transportation partner.

Supporting Employees Through One of the Most Emotional Parts of Their Move

Relocating employees are managing far more than logistics. They are transitioning careers, homes, schools, routines, and family life — often across borders and time zones.

For many families, concern about their pet's safety and wellbeing becomes one of the most emotionally significant parts of the relocation process.

WorldCare was built around understanding that reality.

Our mission goes beyond transporting pets. We aim to create reassurance, trust, and peace of mind throughout the relocation experience by providing:

- Dedicated one-on-one support
- Proactive communication
- Transparent travel updates
- Compassionate guidance
- Safety-first travel planning
- Clear timelines and expectations
- Personalized relocation coordination

At WorldCare, we believe exceptional pet relocation support positively impacts the overall employee relocation experience.

That is why we call ourselves:

“The Heart of Your Move”

Real-Time Communication Throughout the Journey

Communication is one of the most important aspects of a successful pet relocation.

WorldCare provides families and corporate partners with proactive updates throughout every stage of the move.

What Employees Can Expect:

Dedicated Pet Relocation Counselor

A single point of contact from consultation through final delivery.

24/7 WhatsApp Updates

Real-time updates, photos, and communication throughout travel whenever operationally possible.

Flight & Travel Monitoring

Continuous monitoring of flights, routing changes, weather disruptions, customs clearance, and travel progress.

Immediate Escalation Support

If an unexpected issue arises, employees and relocation partners are informed quickly alongside a proposed solution.

Post-Arrival Follow-Up

Our team follows up after delivery to ensure pets have settled safely into their new home.

Safety & Compliance Come First

International pet relocation requires careful coordination between airlines, veterinarians, customs authorities, and destination country regulations.

WorldCare's operational framework is built around risk reduction, compliance accuracy, and animal welfare.

Our Safety & Compliance Standards Include:

IATA Live Animals Regulations Compliance

All relocations follow IATA Live Animals Regulations and airline-specific requirements.

Dual Documentation Review

Critical documentation is reviewed through multiple quality checkpoints before travel.

Temperature & Embargo Monitoring

Flight routing is carefully evaluated based on weather conditions, embargoes, and seasonal restrictions.

Airline & Ground Partner Vetting

WorldCare maintains relationships with carefully selected airline cargo divisions and trusted global partners.

Emergency Response Procedures

Our team proactively manages delays, rerouting, weather disruptions, customs holds, and other unexpected operational events.

Pet Protection Plan

Every move includes access to WorldCare's Pet Protection Plan for additional peace of mind during transport.
